WHAT IS GRIT?

PASSION

- the measure of how badly we want a goal

PERSEVERANCE

- determination to achieve a goal despite how hard it may be
No You Can’t, Yes I Can written by Justin Allen and Antoinette Cauley

“They say, “No you can’t achieve”

I say, “Yes I can, because I believe

....And I did”
Think, Pair, Share

1. THINK: Take a minute to think about what you wrote down and add more details if possible
2. PAIR: Pair up with someone at your table and share your ideas with one another
3. SHARE: You will share your ideas with the class and have a chance to write them on the SmartBoard.

Circle the images that display grit.

I love dancing but it's too hard! I give up!

I'm done, I can't do it anymore

DON'T QUIT.
YOU'RE ALREADY IN PAIN.
YOU'RE ALREADY HURT.
GET A REWARD FROM IT.
Think of a time that you were “gritty”. What were you passionate about? Did your passion for this goal create perseverance for the goal?
Interview your parent, sibling, or someone else at home. Ask them:

When was a time that you were ‘gritty’. What happened and what did you do?

Was there ever a time that you were passionate about something but thought you couldn't do it? Did you persevere or give up?

Did your passion for this specific goal create perseverance for that goal?

Please write down what your family member says, like you're interviewing them for TV!
